statement will be received with implicit confidence wherever he is known. Besides, the certificates of hundreds, of every political party, can be obtained, that this statement is true in ity, but of negro superiority, comes from a lead-er of the party which has been charging negro-equality upon the Republicans from every stump in the Northwest.

ronaville, its voters entered their names on the Republican roll, showing them a number of our oldest eitzens.

There is a studied effort among many of the leaders of other parties to crash out our growing organization. To such an extent is this the case, that in some parts our Republican friends have thought it prudent not as yet to organize. We doubt the propriety of such a course, for now, if there ever was a time in the history of our country, is the very lime that every Republican should run the hazard of doing his whole duty—for what momentous issues nangupen the result of the coming context!

There are honorable exceptions to these efforts. There are honorable exceptions to these efforts. There are many who refuse to stoop to such contemptible meanness as to prevent any citizen of our country from the free exercise of his own privileges. In our own immediate neighborhood, all attempts to stiffs the freedom of speech have been abandoned as unterly hopeless, and it is gravely suggested that this infected spot should be cut out and attituded on the "Panhandie." Men of Illinois! Will you rote for this man by preferring a negro to rule over you, rather than your own honored Lincoln? Can you do The following is the article alluded to in the For the Express.

GOV. JOHNSON'S SPEECH AT TERRE HAUTE. The telegraph reports to the country that overnor Johnson said in his speech at Terri The telegraph reports to the country that Coversor Johnson said in his speech at Terre Haute, at the great Democratic demonstration in that city on Monday last, that he preferred a negro to Lincoln for the Presidency. No such remark was made by him.

Commenting upon the qualification of Lincoln for the Presidency, Gov. Johnson said that his refl-splitting ability seemed to be his most prominent recommendation. If this qualified a man for the Presidency, the Governor playfully rémarked that he had divers negro men who could be at Lincoln at that; and should one of them be made President on that account, he was confident of one thug—that he would be sound on the slavery duestion.—Terre Haute Journal.

The above I clip from the Terre Hante Journal.

The above I clip from the Terre Hante Journal of Thurnday Is t. Now, Mr. Editor, permit me to tell you would the destinguished Democratic candidate for the Vice Presidency did say. I was standing in front, within twenty-five feet of the speaker, lacking him in the face at the time, and heard the words distinctly.

Johnson said, that Mr. Lincoln was bragged of as a great rail splitt, and his friends claimed merit on that account. He Johnson) then continued, and said that he hed twenty negroes on his plantation who could beat Lincoln rail olitties, and rive him creat odds. He then continued, and said that he had twenty negroes on his plantation who could beat Lincoln rall-splitting, and give him great odds. He then named five or six, giving, as I supposed, the freal names of the negroes, any new of whom, he emotistically declared, HE WOULD RATHER NEE ! LECTED PRESTIDENT OF THE UNIT. ED STATES THAN ABE LINCOLN. These were his words, and the sentiment was applianced by averal persons on the stand around the speaker, as well as some who stood on the benches near me. As I passed sway through the speaker, as well as some who stood on the benches near me. As I passed away through the criwd, immediately alterwards, I heard several remarkins upon this outrage upon all decency; and inquiring whether that was Douglas Democracy.

Johnson did add something about such negro being sound on the slavery question, but that was thrown in only as another reason for giving preference to his negro for the Presidency.

The Presidency—The Forlors of the Democracy, [Fr.m the New York Times.] The organs of the Damocratic party are doing their best to keep their courage up. They try to persuade themselves that all is not lost. They acknowledge the stunning character of the blow they have received, but console themselves with the thought there is a month left in which they may recoure. The Washington Constitution talks about reconquering Parameter.

Councy Pascuce, Word Ch., Pa.:

I means. Epirons:—Within the last three weeks we have held some seven Lincolu meetings in this region of Wood county, and could the whole county be cauvessed, there would be a Republican vote polled that would astonish the "bell weathers" of old parties. As it is, we will in this upper end of the county, give "Honest Abe" such a lift as will cause some considerable shaking among the dry bones of these same individuals.

In 1856 but 8 votes were polled for Premont

Constitution talks about reconquering Pennsylvanis—out most of the other organs contess that New York is their forly ra hops.

Much of this, however, is mere pretance. The sensible men of the party know and feel that they are beaten. The Pennsylvanis election is not the only proof of coming defeat—it is only one more added to the many symphons that have preceded it. All the ci citions of the scinmer have indicated to the many symphons that have preceded it. All the ci citions of the scinmer have indicated the citions of the scinmer have indicated the citions and the philometer. The Western Standard show a similar increase of Sepublican strangth; and some Fennsylvanis, as all the strangth of the Democracy, the State which has more than once saved the party to their dying hopes.

It is utter fully to expect that a tide, which has thus been relining in and rising higher and higher during the last year or two, is to stop in midocean and flow back before it strikes the abore. Why should not the same influences which have affected other States, tell upon New York? This city, its strae, is mainly commercial, but so is Philadelphia. Our people are conservative, but so are those of Pennsylvania. The same cames must produce the same effects here as they have produced slewbers. New York feels the same impulse which has roused every other State to an indigennal and effective protest against the current character of our Federal rule. the will vote the same way, and we shall be very much surprised if Lincoln's nearly in this State does not very considerably exceed 50,000. The Fusion movement, on which reliance is placed in certain quarvers, never well informed on political subjects, will do not the slightest good. Indeed, we believe it has done, and is doing, the Opposition party very great hurt. If the Dugias Democrats had gone vigorously to work immediately after their Syracuse Convention, pushed the riskes, fought their elements, and sustained their tries on principle, and made no efforts for coalition or fassion with oth party very great nure. It the Bougass Lemocrais had gone vigorously to work immediately after their Syracuse Correstion, pushed the r ticket, fought their esemies, and suntained their friends on principle, and made no efforts for coalition or fusion with other parties, they would have cast a larger rote than they will now. They have disgusted thousands of their friends, and have de noralized the whole Oppoaliton movement.

The visit of the Philadelphia.—A Remlabecame.

The visit of the Philadelphia. Bulletin, calls to mind a story we have neard concerning the visit of another royal or imnerial persongs to the city. When Jerome Bonaparte came to Philadelphia, in 1805, as the brother of the First Cosul of Frames, he stirated much sitention, and extraordinary honors were shown him by the political party which sympathied with his illustrious relative. The Indian Queen Hoiel, on the cast side of Fourth sirect, above Chestnut, was then the fashionable house of the city, and at iths establishment the fature King of Westphalis made his home during his stay in this city. Mr. Bonaparte, or Prince Jerome, as he was called, was at the susceptible age of nincieen at the time of his visit here, and was particularly subject to te der impressions. The young gentleman had not equived the advanlages of as good training as the Prince of Wales has had, nor was he accompanied here by as discreet a smite. The consequence was that they young gentleman had not equived the advanlages of as good training as the Prince of Wales has had, nor was he accompanied here by as discreet a smite. The consequence was that they young fromburan ogied all the presty girls he met with, and where they struck his fascy particularly, he end avored to visit them. In Pourth street, below Chesturi, there lived at the time a lady who shall be- nameless, who was in very straightened circumstances, who
had a very beautiful nice, an orphan girl, who was a times of her bome. Young Bonesparte g less, and it is gravely suggested that this infeeted spot should be eat out and attituded on the "Panhandie."

One week say the citizens of Williamstowe, in this county, called a meeting, to which they invited the speakers of the different parties, but before the time of the meeting it was discovered that a discussion of principles might spotl the calculations of those who had things all "fixed up." Silence was the best policy, thought they, and so indeed it was; but this time the fact was discovered too late, for although an effort was made to give out the impression that the meeting was shandoned, the Republicans, although having from eight to thirteen miles to travel, were to the diamay of their opponents, on the ground promptly at the appointed hour. Col. Peterson, N. H. Colson, W. E Stevenson Isand thers wefer ready to ester the lists for Lincoln, but after some cross-fring, Bell, Breek, and Dug unconditionally surrendered, and the Republicans having thus exptured the samy without firing a shot, proceeded to have a rail meeting on their own account, and a rousing one they had. The Republican platform was read, and Mr. Stevenson, at the request of the citizans present, explained the poolicy set farth therein, stated the true position of the Republican party on the living questions to be acted upon in the present political struggie, exposed the milamous course of the party calling itself democratic, explained that the Bell organization, if persevered in, could result in no good but might be the means of great injury by its unnatural and inconsistent combinations with the disjointed and dying democracy. Gen. Walker's Real Bealgn.
The Havana Discio has the following stor which may be taken with grains of allowane

"Walker was not working on his own account in Honduras, but was the spent of an American amociation, whose mote is the 'Knighte of the Southern States,' and with which he was is constant communication through a Mr. Fayasoux. His project was to form, with the help of a few inhabitants of Rustian, known already to the government of Truxillo, an independent State of part of the Republic of Honduras, and to annex it to the American Union. The new State would have contained the Bay Islands and they whole part of the coast of Honduras from Punta Casulia to Onno. Walker would have been of ceuras, placed at the head of the new government. And if, by the interrestine of the Britishers, the plan was to fail, Walker did not think that all expenses incurred should be lost on that account; for he hoped that in a cw hours he could explare on the Bay Islands, and on the northern coast of Honduras, from 300 to 400 negroes, and send them to New Orleans and other Southern States, to be sold there as alaves, and indemnify the persons who had advanced money for the expedition."

—A curious libel suit is on trial in Andreacogin county, Ms., Darius Forbes, editor of the Maine Law, and representing Mr. Fuller as "a runs blanted sot, and salies of interiesting liquors." The same editor has been socked by the Postmuster of Raleigh, N. C., that his paper is "unit to circulate in a southern community", and the Baleigh, N. C., that his paper is "unit to circulate in a southern community", and the Baleigh, Standard says he is "a ture of the wreck of the fallen Nespolitan despoilsm:

Amoys any man we meet, or any of the hosts who bestow so much attention upon us, has a tale of some deed of oppressing of which himself or some of his franch have been the victim. The wonder is, not that such a power should break like a frail rs.d., but that the sountry is which almost every man was a suffered, not a roise should be raised for revenige. From Heggie to Naples we never came to a lonely spet on the road where we had not the company of some of the poor dishanded Royal soldiers. It is the first instance, I believe, in history, in which a conquering and vasquished army were seen marching aide by sait, and almost premiscuously, without any hortile feeling.

asmy were seen marching side by side, and almost premiscuously, without any hostile feeling.
The sufferings of the depressed Nespolitana are dreadful. We must have passed no less than twenty five thousand of them. As they laid down their muskets they every man began tramping. Footsore, and many of then abocles, simost naked some of them—for they sell all available garments—they creep along, parched, burst, started. Fee ever pass us without begging lainentations, or without that peculiar gesture of the thumb and ferefinger before the mouth, indicative of hanger in the dumb Learsonni isnigangs.

Garbaids has his own army to feed; and the very dispersion of these miscrable fugitives over so long a line of march would reader the distribution of relief an impossibility. The amiable, long suffering features of their Italian nature come forth in all this agany; ten the fellow beings that charity which their solicitation cannot dient, never seems to strike any of this long train of desolate ragabons. Thus far I have heard of no excess, or even misor offense, laid to the charge of these poor sufferers, nor of any instance of harshones evinced toward them by the inhabitants of the country they ge through.

In 1503, this horrible monster of cruelty died, after a reign of eleven years of desolation. Rome rejoiced. She spake thus through Pasquin: "Say, Alecto, whence burst this peace upon ms? Why so suddenly has the din of battle husbed? Seeins obit—Sextus is dead. The reign of Julius II gave birth to numerous pasquinedes. He was a militant pontid. Heading the army to go against the Vecetians, as he crossed the Tiber, he three the keys of St. Peter into the river, and drawing his sword from its sheath, sword he hanceforward would trust to the sword of St. Pala. Pasquin seized upon the incident and treasured it up in the tollowing pojuram: "Since the keys of St. Peter can never win a battle, by the help of St. Pall, let us lean on the sword." When Michael Angelo asked this fighting Pope, whether he should put a book in the hands of the bronze status he was making of his Holiness, he replied "Metivium app is, whe is one so letters?"—" No, put a sword in it, for I know nothing of letters!"

He was the first of the later Popes, whe let his beard arow, and Raphael's portrait of his head gives him great digaity of character. The beard has always been regarded as the characteristic of St. Peul. Pasquin said, on this occasion: "For ma, the beard of Paul, the sword of "Paul, every thing of Paul; that key-porter, "Peter, is in me way to my liking!" But the most savage epigram squinas him, was his vanify for the name of the destroyer of the ancient republic: "Julius is at Rome, We have to sav on this interesting subject in to-morrow's Patriot, Pasquin as in a fair way of leasing his occupation, in Rome, as Garibalai approaches the Holy City. It arequin was not the only figure in Rome, the utterer of free speech. There was a colosal statue of an ocean or river god, discovered in the 16th century, near the forum of Marri, and called ther from Marforto. About the end of the same century, he was removed to the lower court of the Conservatori palsee, on the capitoline, and there he is to be found now. Dialogues were and still are carried on between Pasquin and Marforto and a share in their conversation was sometimes taken by the Facchino, or porter of the Piombino palsee. Sprenger in 1660 says, that Pasquin was a signed to the sobles, Marforto to the citizens, and Pacchino to the populsce. In addition to these were the abbot Luigi, of the Valle palsee, Lucretia, who sits beaind the Yenetian palsee, near St. Mark's church, the Babota, as called from Babbuino street, the marble portrait of Scanderbeg, the enemy of the Turks, on the gable of the house he o oe lived in. Each of these parties took part in the satirical talk of his companions, through whom the Remans, true to their ancient character in the days of the Cara, ismpooned their iniquitous and oppressive rulers in the style of old Martial.

The uppointments for Hon. R. C. and Hon. Down Piatt, et Ohio, at Clark-County, on the lat of Novembers charged to Greenup, Comberland the same day.

We understand that Mr. Douglas thanselessness to say, in his speech a field, on the 18th, that the testimony the world by the Democratic Chan Leivenworth, Kansas, in which he to be the real author of the oficin sion clause" in the Leconstan Contact of the Contact Co to be the real author of the odious aion clause" in the Lecompton Con and manufactured by "Ann Lixu and manufactured by "Ann Lixu first printed in his Abolition organ, cago Prints axio Tribuya." We trushave been misinformed. Our respectable where the misinformed is the highest, as we esteem him, we should regree that any man asking to be discled to booreable office in the world, by the generous and confiding people, on the standard property word of which, he knows as the same falselshood. The untilmost was copied from the few Orleans, the source whance we derived it wand legibly given, both at the head year and in our efficial columns.
